

HOPE|EXPLORED

WHAT'S THE BEST LIFE
YOU COULD EVER EXPECT?

Hope Explored is an informal and relaxed three-week course. It's for anyone who wants to find hope, peace and purpose in life. It's run by ordinary Christian people local to you and is completely free. You don't need to know anything about the Bible, and you won't be asked to pray or sing. You can ask any question you like, or you can just sit and listen.

Whoever you are, whatever you're thinking, Hope Explored is a place for you to discover the hope of a future that is better than you could ever imagine.

Tuesdays 26 April; 3 May; 10 May
8pm, 79 Hauxton Road

from Rev Simon Scott
Rector of Little Shelford

Dear friends,

I was recently reminded of an early radio address by Dietrich Bonhoeffer, at the time still a young professor. The broadcast happened live at the German Broadcasting Company on February 1st 1933, just a day after Hitler had been confirmed as Chancellor. Towards the end, the script of the broadcast contained a chilling warning, for anyone with ears to hear: "if a leader surrenders to the wishes of his followers, who always want to make him their idol – then the image of the Leader will gradually become the image of the Mis-Leader".

But Bonhoeffer discovered on leaving the studio that his last sentences hadn't been broadcasted. As early as 1933, Hitler had already become the Mis-Leader, feeding his supporters with his version of the 'truth' – and suppressing all dissenting voices.

The parallels with media distortion in our own day are numerous – and not just with the obvious ones. The charge of 'fake news' is regularly heard, whether about war crimes in Ukraine, vaccines, parties during Lockdown, Brexit or any number of matters, particularly where people's differing views have become polarised. 'Fact checking' has its own section on the BBC news website – which, I suppose, raises the question as to who is checking the checking...

It has become easy in a technological age where ideas spread quickly for us to filter what we hear, so that our own views, perhaps chosen for our own motives, are never challenged. We reason that there is simply too much information out there to assess the accuracy of everything. So we opt for the easy path of living in our own echo-chamber – listening exclusively to our favoured websites, reinforcing our own views and dismissing other perspectives. Openness to genuine debate easily becomes a casualty.

When Jesus Christ was on trial for his life, Pilate mused aloud: 'What is truth?' The question was his attempt to keep at arm's length a claim which Jesus had just made – that he came into the world to testify to the truth. 'Everyone on the side of truth listens to me,' Jesus had said. (John 18:37). That was altogether too uncomfortable to Pilate – and he retreated to the safe distance of philosophical abstraction.

So my Easter invitation for us is to reconsider the evidence of Jesus Christ. Can we trust his claim to be on the side of truth?

We should all be willing to run the Christian message through a fresh 'fact check'. If at a dateable point in history he died on the cross for our sins and was raised to life after three days, then the trail of evidence is surely there to be considered. Too much hangs on it for us to silence the events of the most significant weekend in human history, merely by selecting our own version of reality (which coincidentally rates the 21st century highest).

Please join us at any of our services or come along to our course investigating Christianity – 'Hope Explored', starting on April 26th. For more information please contact the church office on office@allsaintslittleshelford.org. You can be sure of a warm welcome.

With love from,
Simon

Review: Little Shelford Pantomime 2022 - Babes in The Wood

Following a curtailed pandemic 'Pantomime' last year, greasepaint was once more applied, thighs slapped, costumes stitched and LFT'd tonsils warmed and stretched, all under the watchful eye of Dame Dick Wallin, who directed with characteristic aplomb, ably assisted by Heidi Meikle.

The particular woods in which these Babes found themselves lost were located in Wandlebury, with our heroes, Hansel and Gretel, played with alacrity by Archie Meikle and Emma Quinnell (filling in last minute for the Covid-struck Lucy Christelow), bemoaning a dull Boxing Day walk. A magic door transported them and us to a world beyond, a world of pure imagination as espoused in song by Oliver Moss as our fabulous Dame Granny Gertie, accompanied by a chorus of woodland creatures with fur, ears and tails liberally stapled or glued to whichever body part had been presented to the superbly creative wardrobe department, marshalled by Charlotte Chatwin and her assistants.

Olivia Henry was excellent as Sybil the Witch, with equally menacingly comedic familiars played by Ellen Arthurs and Sally Hudson, and a pair of hapless wolves in the shape of Jonathan Eames-Cartwright and Charlie Fulton, both of whom were determined to make a quick meal of Little Red Riding Hood (Poppy Henson). Red was more than capable of looking after herself though, with her band of fairytale sisters in Goldilocks, Rapunzel, Mary Quite Contrary and the Little Misses Bo Peep and Muffett, played with panache by Eira Sheridan, Rafaela Wilkinson, Zosia Zmija, Freya Cameron and Alexa Bendelack respectively. And, in a surprising turn of fictional poetic licence, Hood's brother was none other than the scourge of tax evaders in the Middle Ages midlands himself, Robin Hood. Robin attempted throughout to win the heart of Maid Marian and Theo Lury as Robin and Chloe Freeman as Marian proved more than adept at the big power ballads. It takes allsorts to create panto magic and the expertly staged fluorescent scene was no exception, with Bertie Bassett himself making an appearance, thanks to the brilliance of Nikki Wilkinson and her team.

Following a comic turn by a scene-stealing quartet of cantankerous Yorkshiremen, out-Pythoning Monty Python in their tales of lockdown hardship, Robin and his Merry Men gathered their courage to thwart the evil machinations of the dastardly Sheriff of Nottingham, played with villainous vigour by Thomas Milne.

The musical accompaniment throughout was excellently provided by the diligent digits of Greg Morris and the repertoire was as wide as the audience acclaim, with songs stretching from Dukas to Duran, Sinatra (Frank AND Nancy) to Sugarhill Gang with all stops in between. A particular highlight was a tear-jerking 'Bright Eyes' performed by clear-voiced rabbits and hedgehogs. The choreography was beautifully directed under the auspices of Cheryl Smythe and Emma Christelow and the whole thing was Covid-coordinated to perfection, as usual, by the indefatigable Sarah Coppendale.

It was a splendidly entertaining romp, scripted by Libby Ahluwalia, spreading much-needed love and good cheer (whilst maintaining social distance, of course) through post festive Little Shelford. Roll on 2023!

GRANTA Medical Practices

Granta Medical Practices Update May 2022

Community Pharmacist Consultation Service (CPCS)

What is CPCS?

When you call us, our receptionists will ask about your symptoms. If your symptoms indicate that you can be helped by a pharmacist, you will be offered a same-day private consultation with a community pharmacist.

Pharmacists are qualified healthcare professionals and experts in medicines. They can offer clinical advice and over-the-counter medicines for all sorts of minor illnesses, and a same day consultation can be arranged quickly and at a time to suit you. This in turns frees up GP appointments for those people with more complex symptoms who really need to see a GP.

How does it work?

We will forward your details to the pharmacist, along with details of your minor illness. The pharmacist will contact you to arrange your consultation on the same day, or at a time that suits you. You may be seen in person in a private consulting room if the pharmacist thinks it appropriate, or your consultation may be carried out over the phone or via video. You will be asked about your medical history and symptoms and current medication, in the same way the GP would ask you about them. Usually, the pharmacist will provide you with advice and can recommend an over the counter product if needed. Details of your consultation with them will be sent to us for our records.

If the pharmacist feels you need to be seen by a GP urgently, they will call us to ensure you are seen, or they will advise you to contact the hospital Emergency Department if deemed necessary. You may also be referred back to us to arrange a non-urgent appointment or follow up.

Why is this a good thing for patients?

Community pharmacies are local, can be open longer hours than us and can offer you the same consultation outcome at a time that is convenient for you. If the pharmacist thinks you need to see a GP, they can help arrange an urgent appointment for you. Patients who have already used this service liked the convenience of having a consultation on the same day, or a day that suited them, at a pharmacy of their choice.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me on 01223 627743 or email me sandra.east@nhs.net

LITTLE SHELFORD
CRICKET CLUB

Lots going on as we prepare to start the season. Here are some key dates and opportunities for those who might want to play as well as information on our opening Social Event in the Memorial Hall on 30 April.

Nets on the Wale for Seniors & Juniors

The cricket square is in perfect condition and the artificial strip we had installed last year we be used extensively this season. The regular nets for Junior

Section members will be on Tuesday evenings and Saturday mornings while Senior nets will be on Wednesday evenings. Both sessions will start after the Easter weekend. To find out more contact Neil Orpwood (Seniors) or Ian Reid (Juniors). Contact details below.

Softball Cricket for Boys and Girls aged 6-10

Soft Ball Cricket will be returning on Saturday Mornings at 9.30am on the Wale Recreation Ground soon. Softball Cricket gives an opportunity to experience the basics of cricket and make new friends in the safe environment of the Wale Recreation Ground and LSCC.

Softball Cricket will be led by Neil Orpwood and Ian Reid. For more information contact Neil (neilorpwood@msn.com or 07866 751651) or Ian (ian.reid620@ntlworld.com).

Our Growing Youth Section for 10-15 year old Boys & Girls

We started our Junior Section two seasons ago despite Covid-19 restrictions, but we are looking forward to growing Youth Cricket on the Wale in 2022. The Junior Section for Boys and Girls age 10 - 15 welcomes all local young people interested in cricket. The Junior Section is led by Ian Reid, well known as a successful Cambridge based Junior Coach, along with Jamie Harrison, LSCC Player and experienced youth coach.

Junior nets will kick off when Covid-19 restrictions permit and fixtures are being arranged for the Summer. For a Junior Player registration form and more details contact Clara Cheng our Junior Section Administrator (claracheng@msn.com), Ian Reid (ian.reid620@ntlworld.com) or Jamie Harrison (jjc.harrison@ntlworld.com).

Wildlife Group

The hedging around the bowling green on the Wale has been cut. Hopefully the birds will begin to search for good nesting places soon.

We are lucky to have The Wale, a great asset to our village, and lovely to have the new trees planted.

Churchyard Safety and Environment

Every few years the parish church is required to assess the safety of the headstones for the graves within the churchyard. This is carried out in accordance with a documented method which applies a measured steady force to the headstones to help avoid the danger of any of them toppling over and causing injury.

We intend to carry out the next test in July. Any headstone which is not secure will be laid down and on the grass of the grave by which it stood.

The church will make contact with any known family associated with any headstone which is not secure, giving the option for them to repair the headstone if they wish. Alternatively, we would lay the stone embedded in the grass above the associate grave to still be visible yet avoid any trip hazard and to help with churchyard maintenance. You can make sure that we are aware of your details as a contact for any specific grave by emailing office@allsaintslittleshelford.org.

Meanwhile, we are being encouraged by Ely diocesan guidelines to phase out the use of artificial flowers on grave plots, partly for environmental reasons. Hopefully, this will improve the appearance of the churchyard. Please bear this priority in mind when visiting a grave.

Ukraine Refugees: Open Arms In Shelfords/Stapleford (OASISS)

OASISS, the community hosting initiative encompassing the three villages of Great Shelford, Little Shelford, and Stapleford, is making great strides in matching Ukrainian families seeking refuge with families in our villages.

Supported by the three local Parish Councils and the local churches, the initiative has attracted offers to host from over 60 families and many offers from elsewhere to support the Ukrainian guests. Guests arriving under this scheme will be able to live and work in the UK for up to three years and access benefits, healthcare, employment, and other support.

Contacts helping to identify potential refugees include the Cambridge Ukrainian Society, Keble Association Oxford, Cambridge University Ukrainian Society, Cambridge4Ukraine UK, and known individuals on the ground in Hungary, Poland, and Austria.

As of April 12th, we are aware of over 20 OASISS hosts who have connected with Ukrainian families looking for homes; many of them have embarked upon the cumbersome HfU visa process which seems to take a minimum of two weeks to complete.

The matching of hosts and refugees requires much attention to detail. We have tried to place larger groups in two or three homes - ideally close to one another. Other considerations include the accompanying pets, disability, COVID vaccine status, and whether people smoke (especially when under stress).

There was a very productive social gathering of OASISS hosts at Great Shelford Rugby Club (thank you GSRC!) on Tuesday 12 April, when both the enthusiasm and the concerns of potential hosts and their supports was in evidence. One of the ideas raised was to establish a buddy system: families who cannot themselves receive Ukrainian guests, but who could offer hospitality or an activity to host families. A day at the sea, a trip to Cambridge, a game of football or a chance to gather with other displaced families.

We are currently drafting content for web pages which might be stand-alone or part of an existing organisation. Similarly, we hope to connect with an established Cambridge charity so that we can collect monetary donations which will not only attract Gift Aid but will also be overseen by that organisation.

If you have suggestions on how to support the OASISS initiative, please email the team at: openarmsgranta@gmail.com

If you think you may be able to welcome refugees to your home, please let us know. We cannot overwhelm the local resources on which we all depend, but sense that a few more homes may be needed.

With thanks to our wonderful communities from the team at OASISS

Shelford and Stapleford Youth Initiative: Overview, from Annual Report 2022

SSYI is a Christian Charity providing services for Young People and operating across our three villages and Sawston. This year has been an eventful one for SSYI, despite the continuing impact of the Covid-19 pandemic we have seen great growth and opened our fantastic, redeveloped Youth Centre in Great Shelford. We are so grateful with what has been achieved this year. Altogether 241 young people have joined in SSYI's activities this year, from all the villages in the area.

Statistics released by Mind in 2020 show that 1 in 4 people will experience a mental health problem of some kind each year in England, so we have been continuing to offer 1:1 support to many of our young people. By the start of the new school year in 2021 we had over 100 new young people coming along to our work and youth clubs on every day of the week, in our Youth Centre and in Sawston. We have continued to run 1:1 work within Sawston Village College, running regular detached sessions in the school and the villages and providing vital support to local young people.

Little Shelford Jubilee Events Update: a 'pull-out' guide

The Parish Council were very pleased when so many village residents stepped up to join the sub-committee to organise events to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee. We have been working hard planning events. An outline of what is planned along with some entry forms for the competitions are included here.

As some of the details are still to be confirmed every house in the Village will receive a detailed timetable of events during the first week of May. Our intention is to make the weekend enjoyable and fun for all ages, hence the wide range of events. To prepare for the weekend do read the details below and think about entering the competitions on Thursday 2 June, dressing up your house for the "best dressed" prize and digging out your photographs for the 70 Years of Little Shelford exhibition in All Saints North Building.

Thursday 2 June

2.30pm - Street Party in Church Street outside the Memorial Hall and Winners Take-away (subject to County Council approval). Including a "bring and share" picnic and an "open mic" for local residents of all ages to entertain us with songs, music and poetry and prose readings fit for the Platinum Jubilee celebration. Come prepared to perform! The road closure will end by 6pm.

The Street Party will be complemented by Village Show activities in the Memorial Hall. A competition for children and Adults for a Jubilee Cake/Dessert, an art work for the Jubilee contest for all ages and flower arranging for adults. The Jubilee cake/pudding competition will be judged by local celebrity Chef Ben Orpwood of Great British Menu fame. Details of the competitions and entry forms are included later in this update. Friday 3 June

A quarter peal will be rung on the All Saints Church Bells by the tower crew in conjunction with the National Thanksgiving Service at St Pauls. The quarter peal is 1,260 changes and takes about 45 minutes. The timing is to be confirmed but join us in the Churchyard to hear the bells to best effect. We also hope to have a livestream of the Bell ringing for those unable to attend in person.

7.30pm - A celebration drinks reception at Priest House in Church Street for Village residents over 18. Entrance will be Free but tickets will need to be obtained in order to manage numbers.
